"Children of Peace" Whole School Mufti Day

We intend to hold a WHOLE school mufti day on Friday, 28 May, in aid of the "Children of Peace" charity. This is in response to student concerns about the recent escalation of violence in Israel/Gaza.

Children of Peace seeks to protect all of the children and their communities in Israel and Palestine – regardless of culture, faith, gender or heritage. They do this by acting as a non-partisan intermediary and by focusing upon building alliances. This is achieved through coexistence projects and programmes in the arts, education, health and sports for Israeli and Palestinian children, aged 4 – 17 years. The charity is endorsed by Joe Biden, The Pope and Boris Johnson amongst others.

We will promote the charity and address the issue in tutor time next week when students will view a short PowerPoint that summarises the work of the charity.

In the past we have worked with organisations such as The Friends of Israel and the Council for Arabic understanding in order to explore the background to conflicts across the Middle East and to debate strategies that will promote conflict resolution.

We will be asking students to make a voluntary contribution of ONE pound on the day which will be collected in tutor time.

Attendance Matters!

Now that we are (hopefully) coming out of lockdown it is timely to remind ourselves of attendance and punctuality expectations. As a school, we expect a minimum of 96% attendance from students. For some, due to the pandemic, their attendance may have been impacted upon. Any lockdown absences are not counted on a student's attendance record. You can check your child's attendance record on SIMS Parent.

If you know in advance that your child will be absent from school on a particular day then please email our attendance officer, Ms Carver, on tcarver@greycourt.org.uk or phone the school and leave a message on ext. 104 which is the school absence line. If your child is ill on any particular day please email or call the absence office BEFORE 8am, giving the name and tutor group of your child and a brief reason for their absence. If there are any more detailed conversations to be had about attendance please direct a follow up call or email to your child's Student Support Officer.

All students should be on site by 8.25am at the latest and then sat in their registration rooms by 8.30am. Students arriving after 8.30am will be marked as late in the register. We continue to encourage all students to walk or cycle to school - that way they are in control of their journey time and it cannot be affected by traffic or full buses. If public transport is being used then to get an earlier bus or train will hopefully ensure a punctual arrival to school.

Thank you in advance for your ongoing support.

Mr Bashford

As the half term break gets closer, we just wanted to put out a couple of reminders:

GoFundMe

We are very close to our £7000 target and it would be amazing if we could raise this by the end of the summer term. Please donate (click here) what you can to support. We will share all the things your kind donations have funded on a separate update towards the end of the summer term.

Save the Date 18 September

We have started planning for G Fest 2021 - a super fun get together for families and students with food, music, sport, and entertainment - more details coming your way soon.

If you would like to get involved in the planning stages, have idea about a stall you would like to run, or able to sponsor or match fund part of the event or able to donate a raffle prize or voucher please e-mail us at greycourtpa@gmail.com

Lastly, a reminder that if your child is in Y11 and you have any unwanted uniform you can donate it to the school, by leaving it at the school reception.

We are also collecting second hand uniform from all other year groups too and any unwanted sports kit, trainers, equipment. These can be dropped off in the plastic tubs outside the school reception—thank you!

Many thanks
Amira, Michaela and Lou

#Y7

This week Y7s received their exam booklet. This booklet contains all the information needed for their assessments after half-term.

A few further details

Sports' Day: Monday, 7 June

P1—P2 lessons will be as normal.

P3—P6 will be sports day.

Students should wear their PE kit.

Assessments

Tuesday, 8 June to Thursday, 10 June will see block assessments in Maths, English, Science, History and Geography.

P1—P2 and P5—P6 exams will be held in classrooms in form groups. Students will be told these rooms nearer the time.

P3—P4 students go to normal lessons but will be given time to revise for the afternoon exams.

Registration is as normal on Monday. On Tuesday/Wednesday/Thursday students will line up in the Y7 area before being taken to assessments. They will not have PM registration and will be dismissed at 2.45pm.

INSET day (Friday, 11 June) so students do not need to attend school

Other subjects eg languages and computing will be completed in lesson times - please see exam timetable for further details.

We hope that students use this opportunity to show off their hard work from this year. We advise students to get started with their revision early, rather than leaving it to the last minute. The booklet contains what will be covered in each exam and some tips for revision. This will be a useful starting point.

If students have any questions regarding the exams they should ask their tutor who will be able to clarify.

Mr Day

#Y8+Y9

In our video assembly this week we looked at our revision guides and the different techniques that students might not be utilising for their revision. I also pointed out the contents of the guide and the exam timetable to highlight which exam is on what day, so that students can further plan their revision timetables as we close on the exams.

The punctuality of the students has seen a vast improvement over the last few weeks, with far fewer arriving late to school in the morning.

Last week brought with it further easing of restrictions and students now no longer need to use a mask in the communal areas of the school. However, they are still welcome to do so if they would prefer.

We have seen a resurgence of unkind messages being sent to each other via WhatsApp and other social media platforms since we returned to school. Please abide by the age restrictions set by each app.

Y7 and Y8 have Sports day on the 7 June and will be competing out on the field. Y8 students that are not competing will still need to sit their Spanish exam P3 before students come out to watch the races after lunch. It should be a great day!

Book of the Week

A Secret of Birds & Bone by Kiran Millwood Hargrave

The spellbinding new novel from the Sunday

Times-bestselling author of The Girl of Ink & Stars, winner of the Waterstones Children's Book Prize.

In an Italian city ravaged by plague, Sofia's mother carves beautiful mementoes from the bones of loved ones. But one day, she doesn't return home. Did her work lead her into danger? Sofia and her little brother Ermin are sent to the convent orphanage but soon escape, led by an enigmatic new friend and their pet crow, Corvith. Together they cross the city underground, following clues in bones up to the towers of Siena, where - circled by magpies - the children find the terrible truth ...

Welcome to the Duke of Edinburgh Awards @ Grey Court!

For over 60 years, the Duke of Edinburgh's Award has been available to young people aged 14 to 25. At Grey Court, we have a long tradition with the award where many students successfully complete the Bronze and many more choose to continue their adventure with the Silver and Gold Awards. We have limited places on these awards so priority will be given to those who have done a previous award or if applying for the first time to any award a personal statement as to your suitability will be required.

For next year 2021-22 Deadline for Applications: 10/06/21

We are taking applications for the Bronze Award from our current year 8!
(Bronze Award Cost: £33 Enrolment + 2 expeditions £55x2 = £143 approx.)

So what's involved I hear you

ROOOOAR?! For the Bronze Award, students will undertake activities in 3 areas: volunteering, learning a new skill and a physical activity. In many cases this could be a recognition of something (like a club) you already do after or outside of school and shows that you are a committed, focused, determined, resilient and an interesting individual. Finally students will take part in the ever popular practice and assessed 2 day expeditions, provided they have attended and passed their training in: compass bearings, map reading, route cards, tents & rucksacks, cooking and first aid. You will find some activity examples on the DofE website:

https://www.dofe.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/05/programme_ideas_-_complete.pdf

BRONZE

Volunteering 3 months

Physical 3 months

Skills 3 months

Expedition 2 days 1 night

PLUS a further 3 months in the Volunteering, Physical or Skills section.

So why do it?!

- Because you deserve to have recognition for the things you already do
- The DofE Award is a passport to a brighter future valued by colleges, universities and employers who recognise what it says about you as a person
- Because you can learn new skills, meet new people...and more importantly have fun!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Z8GG468LeJI&feature=youtu.be>

Are there any rules?!

- You have to be committed—there will be training sessions that are obligatory for you to attend after school, training and route planning for the expeditions (12 x 2 hours between March and June).
- You have to provide evidence in the form of signed logs, photos and organise an assessors report for each of the 3 activities (September to February)
- You must regularly log onto the DofE website and upload evidence to meet set deadlines—if you miss a deadline you may jeopardise your place on the expedition

Level and Age Requirements	Sections and Corresponding Completion Timescales
	Volunteering	Physical	Skills	Expedition	Residential
Bronze (14 years +)	3 months	3 months	3 months	Planning training and expedition of 2 days and 1 night	n/a
Bronze participants must also choose a section (Volunteering Skills or Physical) to spend a further 3 months on.

How do I sign up?!

There are limited spaces available on this award however it is open to all year 8 to apply. Students will be chosen on the strength of a personal statement as to why they feel they are suited to the award. Tutors have this week shown year 8 a presentation on the award and a Personal Statement Questionnaire application has been sent to each year 8's school email address.

No applications will be accepted after the deadline!

Any questions please email our Bronze Leaders: wconder@greycourt.org.uk / jcurran@greycourt.org.uk

Food and nutrition

by Ms Clark

Mrs Shore and I launched our Chutney Project this week, which we run each year in conjunction with the local charity, School Food Matters. We have a group of Y7 students and some Y10 ambassadors participating in a variety of activities and workshops, based around selecting fruits and vegetables to make into a variety of jams and chutneys, culminating in a sale at Whole Foods in Richmond in July. It will also run in collaboration with the allotment/gardening club, promoting the use of local and seasonal produce. More information coming in the next couple of weeks.

Following the celebrations of Eid last week, we have collated some of the best photos we received of the feasts to celebrate the end of Ramdan.

Mrs Anjum talks this week about culture, religion and how certain festivals have food as a focal point of these events.

PIC•COLLAGE

Food, festivals, culture and celebrations

by Ms Anjum

Food is a great consolidator that connects us across cultures and generations. Therefore, it is an important part of any celebrations in all nations of the world regardless of region or religion. Most of the food typically associated with Christmas such as, mince pies and fruit cake arose from Britain. Food is a potent element and can strengthen and unite community bonds and help to maintain a common identity among a group of people. However, the way food is used in celebrations varies from home to home, state to state and from country to country. The celebrations that we have and the way we celebrate them are affected by our cultures and at present there are many different cultures around the world. For us to understand why different foods are used in different celebrations, first we need to understand a little bit about cultures and how it affects the food we eat or use in our diet.

Culture is a learned experience. Culture involves change but some cultures resist change. We are unconscious of our culture. We use certain food because it is so much part of our lives. We saw parents and grandparents eating. This aspect which made us different from others and thus created a whole new innovative society, as food can determine the way people eat and their traditional and religious practices. Cultural influence leads to the differences in the habitual consumption of certain foods and in tradition of preparation, and certain cases can lead to restrictions such as exclusion of meat, milk and certain herbs from the diet.

Recently we heard that Muslims around the world have celebrated Eid ul Fitr, which marks the end of Ramadan, the holy month of fasting. It is celebrated during the first three days of Shawwal, the 10th month of the Islamic calendar (though the Muslim use of a lunar calendar means that it may fall in any season of the year). After morning prayers. They greet each other with “Eid Mubarak”, which means “have a blessed Eid”. An occasion for special prayers, family visits, gift-giving and charity. Eid al-Fitr is sometimes referred to as the Sugar Feast, a nod to the fact that a large constituent part of the meal one eats at the festival is desserts.

But different countries around the world have different favourites. e.g. Turkey, Baklava and Turkish Delight.

In Iraq & Saudi Arabia, lots of people will bake Kleichas, which are rose-flavoured biscuits that contain a filling of nuts and dates. Yemen, Bint al sahn is the preferred Yemeni sweet (honey cake with Nigella seeds topping). In Asia it's typically sheer khurma, Halwa made by Semolina, Biryani, Haleem, Nihari, Samosa chaat, Dahi Bara, pulao. Practices vary from country to country. In many countries with large Muslim populations, Eid al-Fitr is a national holiday.

Talking about our modern Britain we have special foods connected with certain festivals, for example celebrating Good Friday is hot cross buns, Easter day is roast lamb and nowadays baby chicken is associated with birth and new life. Halloween is toffee apples, Bonfire night is hot soups and jacket potatoes, Shrove Tuesday is Pancake Day and Christmas day is turkey, vegetables, stuffing, bread sauce, cranberry sauce and gravy, mince pie, pudding with brandy. In the modernist world we celebrate Valentine's Day, chocolate day and a couple more!!!

For Easter, the question is why do we eat pancakes on a Shrove Tuesday? The tradition comes from families using up all ingredients in their cupboards or store room so that they can start to mark the beginning of the Christian festival of Lent the next day. Shrove Tuesday happens on different days every year. Though historically, Shrove Tuesday is a traditional feast day before the start of lent on Ash Wednesday, 40 days leading up to Easter was traditionally a time for fasting and sacrifice. Often children/ adults give up eating chocolates.

All sorts of celebrations and the food that grace them have brought people from all over the world closer together, no matter which culture or religion they are from around one table and under one roof, purely to enjoy the love of food.

Activity Week: 12–16 July

We are delighted that the lifting of restrictions according to the government's roadmap means we should be able to run a modified version of our hugely successful Activity Week.

You will have received a letter from Ms Hurley detailing the various activities. Please ensure that you complete the permission form and make payment by Friday, 18 June.

Y12 Trial Exams

Monday, 21 June to Friday, 2 July

This week students have been provided with their exam timetable Y12 TT and the trial revision booklet to support them with preparation for the mock exams in June.

During assessment week students will be on exam leave. Should they want to attend lessons then subject teachers will provide students with revision materials or they can revise from home.

These will take place in the exam hall with external invigilators. While we are aware that this may cause stress and anxiety for students, it is important that they experience formal exam conditions as they didn't experience this with their GCSE exams. This allows them to familiarise themselves with the set up and also provides teachers with data about how they perform in a formal exam scenario.

Student Leadership Elections

A reminder that your application needs to be with Mrs Moore by Friday, 28 May. Please also provide a manifesto in the form of a poster, so that it can be displayed around the building.

Well done Kinvia!

Our @GreyCourtSixth @youngenterprise company followed their "Best Company" trophy at the Richmond finals by scooping the Innovation award at the South London Finals. Fantastic result and thoroughly deserved.

Schools who had come first or second in their Borough competitions were pitted against one another in the South London area finals. That meant Grey Court's Young enterprise team, Kinvia, once again entered the Young Enterprise Dragon's Den and faced live zoom interviews with industry leaders from across retail, science and ecological sectors. While Kinvia didn't come out on top on this occasion they were awarded the second most prestigious award of the night, the Innovation award. Indeed, NPL tweeted their congratulations.

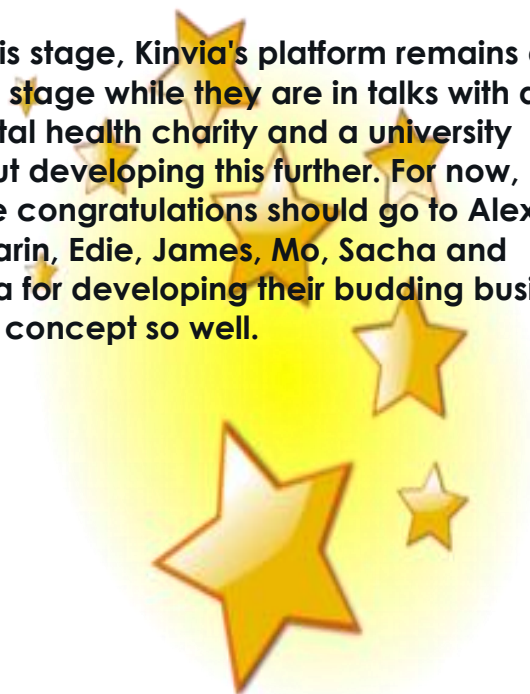

At this stage, Kinvia's platform remains at beta stage while they are in talks with a mental health charity and a university about developing this further. For now, huge congratulations should go to Alex, Anbarin, Edie, James, Mo, Sacha and Sofya for developing their budding business concept so well.

Many congratulations to Anna Pryce who has been offered places at two different drama schools and has selected one of the country's leading, most prestigious centres: Mountview Academy of Theatre Arts. Having left GC with three strong A Levels in 2019, Anna has spent the last two years acting in fringe shows and acting and writing her own material for stage and screen. She has been on a professional tour to Germany (pre-Covid), and created work for a short film festival. As a compassionate humanitarian, she has also been working with charities in London and Edinburgh to support those coming to the UK and in need. She was an exceptional talent at Grey Court and won our Visual and Performing Arts Award for her acting and musical contributions. She played leading roles in our Schools' Shakespeare Festival productions and excelled in A Level Drama. Anna is very talented and committed and will go on to become a well-known name and face...you heard it here first! Congratulations to Anna.

Congratulations also to ex-Grey Court student Max Thompson (who also went to Mountview!) who made it onto the credits for his lighting and camera work on The Barbican's brilliant Paul Weller live stream concert at the weekend.

Suggestions, Parakeets and the Middle East Dilemma

by Mr Clements

Just in case you missed last week's "suggestions box" announcement - here's an abridged version:

This virtual depository can be found in the following virtual location: Google classroom - Year 12 notices/Classwork/Keeping you safe/ Grey Court Sixth Form suggestions box. Students who access the box will find a form they can use to let us know about:

- improvements we need to make
- any discriminatory/safe-guarding incidents they feel we should know about
- any students or staff they feel should be nominated for star of the week with a reason why
- any other aspects of sixth form life they think are going well!

Students can opt to type their name at the end of the survey or leave this section blank.

The Sixth Form team will use their professional judgement to respond to the information that is posted in the following ways:

- Address issues via assemblies/the eBulletin/tutor activities/the PDW programme/student leadership team and SLT.
- Follow up any discriminatory or safe-guarding concerns via the tutor/ student support officers. Head of Year/Senior leadership team/outside agencies where appropriate.

As an institution we want to provide a forum whereby students can have a voice that is heard and which will enable us to safe-guard – commend and innovate. We hope this is a popular forum that is regularly used in a mature and responsible way.

"Children of Peace" Whole School Mufti Day

We intend to hold a WHOLE school mufti day on Friday, 28 May, in aid of the "Children of Peace" charity. This is in response to student concerns about the recent escalation of violence in Israel/Gaza.

Children of Peace seeks to protect all of the children and their communities in Israel and Palestine – regardless of culture, faith, gender or heritage. They do this by acting as a non-partisan intermediary and by focusing upon building alliances. This is achieved through coexistence projects and programmes in the arts, education, health and sports for Israeli and Palestinian children, aged 4 – 17 years. The charity is endorsed by Joe Biden, The Pope and Boris Johnson amongst others.

We will promote the charity and address the issue in tutor time next week when students will view a short PowerPoint that summarises the work of the charity.

In the past we have worked with organisations such as The Friends of Israel and the Council for Arabic understanding in order to explore the background to conflicts across the Middle East and to debate strategies that will promote conflict resolution.

We will be asking students to make a voluntary contribution of ONE pound on the day which will be collected in tutor time.

The infinite variety of Grey Court Life

If anyone ever was in any doubt regarding the variety of problems I have to solve in my elevated position of Deputy Head teacher, here's a list of surreal tasks I grappled with on Wednesday.

- Rescue a stranded parakeet that appeared to be grounded on Ham Common - (it flew off)
- Source spare socks for Mr Flood (no pun intended) who had gone through four pairs on Tuesday due to torrential downpours.
- Investigate the disappearance of Ms Shrafeddin's vintage illustrated copy of a Midsummer Night's Dream.
- Find a non-partisan Middle Eastern children's charity.
- Award marks towards the following A-level essays: "Explore the significance of victimhood in Brighton Rock" and "Discuss the concept of justice in relation to 'the Rime of the Ancient Mariner'."
- Heard a lost cat through a barred gate so it could escape from a group of excited Y7s who were trying to pet it, on the school field at lunch.
- Retrieve two y8 footballs from a thick briar patch without ripping my M&S suit and maintaining a sense of balance and dignity!
- Confiscate several footballs at lesson change-over.
- Mend the chain on a Sixth former's bike.
- Pen the humble eBulletin!

Ms Fincham's Oxbridge and EPQ Update

One to one interviews have been getting underway this week. This has been a useful way for students to discuss their application in more detail and ask individual questions. The sign up sheet for these sessions is available to students in the Oxbridge classroom. Students who do not have an interview before half term will get another opportunity in the first two weeks back after the break. Another session on the Oxbridge process from Ibstock place is available via zoom on the 9 June.

EPQ

Students need to be working to submit their initial application which includes evidence that they have completed the EPQ Future Learn course online. At this stage they should allow themselves to consider at least three possible areas for study and draft some possible questions which we can use in the next stage of the process. This must be completed by the 7th June to ensure they have a place on the course.

PILOT CAREERS' TALK

July 2021

We are looking to run a really exciting careers' talk with Anton Wisely who is a pilot. We would like to invite any students from Y7-Y13 who are interested in attending (date to be confirmed in July). Anton has had an interesting career path, so please read his biography and if you would like to attend please complete the following short form: Pilot Careers talk - expression of interest form

Anton's Biography

I've been flying for almost 30 years now and qualified as a pilot on 11 different types but can remember right back to my very first solo flight. I also left school completely uncertain as to what career path I wanted to follow.

Having chosen the degree which I believed would give me the best results whilst having the most fun, I studied Biological Sciences at University in Edinburgh and at the last possible moment, became involved in the University Air Squadron taking my first flying lessons in a little trainer called the Bulldog.

Fast forward to today and I'm currently a long haul pilot with British Airways, a business owner and consultant for the medical community. I also have a role as a British Airways pilot selector.

Along the way, I served 18 years in the RAF, flying on operations around the world and also instructing new fast jet pilots and inter-service racing for the RAF ski team.

Later, I became a short-haul regional commercial Captain out of London City Airport before finally moving to my current long haul role flying the 787 Dreamliner.

I'd be delighted to hear any questions from students who already know they'd like to work in aviation or, perhaps like me, there are those at this stage who haven't yet decided on a future career path and would like to explore more options which don't require a vocational degree. Perhaps I could lend some clues about passing your dream job interview?"

We are linking up with Lloyds Banking Group to offer 25 year 10 students an opportunity to attend virtual work experience on Monday, 5 July, & Tuesday, 6 July. This will take place in school in sixth form and students will be off timetable.

This will be an interactive experience with students learning about different roles and what type of roles might suit them. Also developing skills, speaking to Lloyds staff and learning about the range of career pathways into these jobs. This would suit students thinking about going into the world of banking, finance and business and will look great on your CV!

If you are interested in attending please complete the google application form and we will be in touch: Lloyds application form The deadline for applications 4 June 2021.
